Re: Michael Rice

Dear Judge Sipple,

By way of introduction, I am a "Director of Investments" at Oppenheimer & Co. Inc. in St. Louis, Missouri.

I first became acquainted with Mike Rice in the mid-1980's. Over the ensuing years, I have assisted Mr. Rice with financial planning and investment advice. I continue to do so to this day.

Throughout the years, I have also known Mike Rice on a personal level, and I meet with him on a regular basis, including several trips to his residence. He has earned my respect, and I find him more focused now than prior to 1994.

Mr. Rice is an honest, matter of fact person and I observe him to be conservative with his activities, both business and personal. I have witnessed his willingness to help those who are less fortunate than he.

I am aware of the details of his conviction in 1994 and on his release in 1999. We have continued our relationship throughout the subsequent years. Today, I would evaluate him as making sound decisions in an ethical and forthright manner.

I continue to view Mike Rice as a trustworthy member of the community.

Sincerely,

Keith W. Good
